More Arrests Coming, District Attorney Declares in Most Recent Statement

Mercantile Appraiser William E Finley, selectman and Vare leader of the Thirty-ninth Ward and executive director of the Republican City Committee, was arrested this afternoon as the "man higher up" in the "Bloody Fifth" Ward political murder.

The arrest, made at 2 p. m. in District Attorney Rotan's office, was made on a warrant accusing Finley of conspiracy to commit assault and battery and murder.

More arrests will follow, said Mr. Rotan, in announcing that the Thirtyninth Ward leader had been appre-

State Senator Edwin H. Vare, leader of the Vare wing of the Republican Organization, was in the District Attorney's office when Mr. Finley was informed that he was under arrest and immediately offered to go the prisoner's bail. Mr. Finley is one of Senator Vare's most trusted lieutenants.

Bail was fixed at $10,000. Mr. Finley then was released for a hearing Tues-

"William E. Finley has been arrested charges of conspiracy to commit assault and battery and murder," said Mr. Rotan in announcing that the arrest had been made.

"He is the man we referred to as the 'man higher up.' "

"Will Senator Vare be arrested " Mr. Rotan was asked

"I have no evidence that would warrant Senator Vare's arrest," replied the District Attorney. "But positively there will be more arrests."

Mr. Finley, sitting in his office at Republican city committee headquarters, Eleventh and Chestnut streets, was informed this afternoon by Detective Joseph McClain, of the District Attorney's office, that he was wanted by Mr. Rotain. McClain told him what was wanted.

"Why, yes, I'll go at once," said Mr. Finley.

Word was at once sent to Senator Vare.

So that no comment would be caused, McClain and Mr. Finley walked to City Hall separately. McClain was the first to arrive at the District Attorney's office. In a few minutes Mr. Finley arrived. Ten minutes later Senator

Vare hurried in. Mr. Finley and Senator Vare took the arrest with outward calm. Both seemed unconcerned, and Senator Vare was especially cheery in his greeting to

By a Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Sept. 29, The four "Frog Hollow" gunmen, wanted Philadelphia for their share in the "Bloody Fifth" Ward political murder, were held without bail today to await extradition to Pennsylvania in spite of the protest of their counsel, who declared that he would appeal to Governor Whitman to prevent their surrender.

Three indictments from Philadelphia, charging murder, voluntary manslaughter and conspiracy to prevent a fair and honest election, were invoked to hold the men, three of whom have made confession-naming "men higher up" in Philadelphia. The prisoners are Ruggiero Falcone, alias Vincenzo Leoni ("Jimmy the Flash"); "Straight Loule" Brunelli, Fred ("Whitey") Burkhardt and "Straight Mike" Dennehy.

[The message from the "war corresponients" may indicate a temporary closing down of censorship, due to some big move by Field Marshal Haig. During the last few days the drum-fire of British artillery on the Ypres front has been extraordinarily violent, according to press reports, possibly resaging another great blow there. The only other occasion of interrupting the news of the correspondents was in October, 1915, when it was announced from London that thousands of words of news from press association correspondents in Sofia and from the German lines on the western bat-tlefront were being withheld by the British of the Food Administration's work, Mr. censor. Two days later announcement was received of the entry of Bulgaria into the war on the side of the Teutonic Allies, and a day after came the news that Field Marshal French, who had remained silent for five days, had made considerable gains in the Loos sector, driving a wedge into the German lines from 500 to 1000 yards in depth. Premier Lloyd George made a sudden trip to the British front this week.]

ALLISON TRIUMPHS IN SCHUYLKILL REGATTA

Defeats Shoemaker in Quarter-Mile Event-Riglind Takes Junior Singles

FALLS OF SCHUYLKILL, Sept. 28. The fall regatta of the Schuylkill Navy was opened by the quarter-mile race, which was won by George W. Allison, of the Undine Barge Club, from Paul Costello, of the Vesper Club. Both men got away well at the start, and it was only in the last few strokes that Allison was able to pull away from Costello, and he crossed the line about five yards ahead of Costello.

Weather conditions were perfect for the race and the course was in good condition, a slight breeze blowing straight up the course. There was not the usual large crowd owing to the lateness of the regatta. Many of the star carsmen were away, either in training camps or in the various naval departments. departments.

It was necessary for the crews to use the two middle arches of Columbia bridge, as there is some construction work being done on the eastern arch and large coffer-dams are in the water for quite a distance above the first arch.
